It is important that you read this document

The information in this document will help you to choose a financial services firm that best suits your needs. It will also provide some useful information about your selected financial services firm.

In addition to the information disclosed to you in this statement, we must, where applicable, disclose other information to you in a separate disclosure statement or statements, including information about the types of services that we provide, the fees that we charge and any actual or potential conflicts of interest. If we have not provided that information to you at the same time as we give you this statement, we must provide it to you as soon as possible thereafter.

What sort of financial services firm are we?

Vivier & Co was incorporated in 2001 and is a boutique financial services firm, registered in New Zealand. With a near 15 year tradition, our core focus is to offer savings accounts featuring above average returns, without market risk volatility.

How can we help you?

We do not provide financial advice, but offer the products listed on our website: www.vivierco.com.

How do we get paid for the products and services that we provide to you?

We do not charge any fees or additional charges for deposit taking. Although we may charge a fee for other services, we shall inform you of this in advance. We do not receive fees from other people or organisations that might influence our offerings.

How are we regulated by the Government?
